

Do not allow banks and other businesses the right to call me whenever they want. There are many other forms of communication they can use to contact me without disrupting my evenings my annoying phone calls. These businesses should not be exempt from the no call laws in place that apply to other businesses.